

Project Versus Presentation

2022-09-07 - Jennifer M - General

Presentations live within projects and share the same name. So, when you're ready to create a presentation, you'll need to simultaneously create a project.

Presentations provide a professional platform for customers to review product information.

Projects are a way to organize all of the information, including presentations, that you share with your customer and/or your vendors in one convenient location.

Related Content

- Start a Presentation/Project